1 of 1 review helpful Great aid for exploring Ohio By Doug Erlandson During the three and a half year period my wife and I lived in northwest Ohio we decided to explore as much of the state as we possibly could For driving through a state on a major highway a simple roadmap will do For really exploring a state and finding places that are off the beaten path a gazetteer is essential Everywhere I went I took my gazetteer These over size maps offer full state coverage of things important to outdoor users such as back roads dirt roads and trails hidden lakes and streams boat ramps public lands trailheads campsites and unique natural features Most atlases have elevation contours DeLorme Publishing Company
